Specifically, Defendant has targeted sales to Illinois residents by setting up and operating an e-commerce store that target United States consumers using one or more seller aliases, offer shipping to the United States, including Illinois, accept payment in U.S. dollars, and have used infringing and counterfeit versions of the NARUTO Trademarks (collectively, the “NARUTO Trademarks”) to residents of Illinois. The NARUTO Trademarks are included in the below chart.

  - a. using the NARUTO Trademarks or any reproductions, counterfeit copies or colorable imitations thereof in any manner in connection with the distribution, marketing, advertising, offering for sale, or sale of any product that is not a genuine NARUTO product or not authorized by Plaintiff to be sold in connection with the NARUTO Trademarks;
  - b. passing off, inducing, or enabling others to sell or pass off any product as a genuine NARUTO product or any other product produced by Plaintiff, that is not Plaintiff's or not produced under the authorization, control or supervision of Plaintiff and approved by Plaintiff for sale under the NARUTO Trademarks;
  - c. committing any acts calculated to cause consumers to believe that Defendant's Unauthorized NARUTO Products are those sold under the authorization, control or supervision of Plaintiff, or are sponsored by, approved by, or otherwise connected with Plaintiff;

- d. further infringing the NARUTO Trademarks; and
  - e. manufacturing, shipping, delivering, holding for sale, transferring or otherwise moving, storing, distributing, returning, or otherwise disposing of, in any manner, products or inventory not manufactured by or for Plaintiff's, nor authorized by Plaintiff to be sold or offered for sale, and which bear any of Plaintiff's trademarks, including the NARUTO Trademarks.
2. Pursuant to the parties' settlement agreement, Defendant shall pay Plaintiff seven thousand dollars ($7,000.00) in damages (the "Damages Amount").
  3. Walmart Inc. ("Walmart") is ordered to transfer the Damages Amount from Defendant's account to Plaintiff within seven (7) calendar days of receipt of this Order.
